

THEE ZOMBIE APOCALYPSE

Electronic Press Kit

Short Bio

Thee Zombie Apocalypse is a solo metalcore project by Rick Torres, blending heavy riffs with themes of resilience, creativity, and self-empowerment. Built from a DIY foundation, the project merges music, visuals, and code into a dystopian transmission experience.

Full Bio

Thee Zombie Apocalypse is a solo project built on resilience and raw expression. Originating from personal and shared struggles, the music reflects perseverance and creative independence. Inspired by the unstoppable nature of zombies, the project uses metaphor and sound to explore survival, identity, and resistance.

Sound & Style

Metalcore / Hardcore / Melodic Heavy Music. Influences include Avenged Sevenfold, We Butter The Bread With Butter, August Burns Red, A Day To Remember, and AFI.

Live Experience

High-energy performances with glitch visuals, jade/azure lighting, and immersive staging. Designed to be energetic, positive, and engaging.

What Sets This Project Apart

A fully DIY one-person project integrating music, visual design, and code. Thee Zombie Apocalypse stands out by combining technical skill with artistic expression.
